FIVE ELEMENT GRADUATE PROGRAMME (UK)
COMMENCING SEPTEMBER 2011

This two year programme is open to all practicing acupuncturists with a background in five element acupuncture. It is crafted to encourage awareness of what you already know, stimulate recognition of what you do not know and allow you to mature as a unique instrument of Nature.

The programme will explore and expand upon the clinical significance of:

- The classical roots of five element acupuncture
- The concepts of health within five element acupuncture, including one's proper nature (xing) and destiny (ming)
- Dao, yinyang, HeavenEarthMan, the four seasons, the five elements and wuxing correspondences
- The five spirits (shen) and the five wills (zhi)
- Zheng (regulatory) qi versus xie (pathogenic) qi
- Physiology and pathology of shen, qi, jing, xue and jinye, with reference to challenges presented by the internal, external and miscellaneous causes of disease causing shi (full) and xu (empty) conditions
- The nature (spirit/essence) and clinical application of individual acupuncture points, based on the imagery of the characters
- Point groupings including windows of the sky, the four seas and empirical local/middle/distal points
- The four examination skills employed in the physical/structural examination and comprehensive TD, including a range of palpation techniques and inquiry via the ten questions
- Diagnosis of the CF and withins through CSOE, including the dynamics of congruent energetic invitations
- Elegant treatment of the CF and withins
- The interrelationships of the twelve officials, both in the regulation and maintenance of life and in the creation of health hazards
- Diagnosis of the twelve officials, referencing the 28 pulse qualities and appropriate treatment in light of CSOE
- Locations of jingluo channels and specific acupuncture points
- Diagnosis and treatment of jingluo channels (primary, divergent, luo, sinew and the ren and du mai) beyond exit/entry blocks and akabanis
- Diagnosis and treatment of the sheng and ke cycles, including a new look at transfers and the four needle technique
- The nature of specific protocols used in five element acupuncture including IDs/EDs for specific ying qi pathologies, AE for wei qi pathology and H/W for a fundamental yinyang imbalance
- The integrated treatment of bodymindspirit conditions
- Five element treatment techniques and tools including needling and moxibustion applications
- Adjunct aids to treatment, including structural acumoxa, ginger and salt compresses, first aid remedies, derma rollers and seven star hammers
- Patient education based on Asian medical principles of health and nutrition
- Dynamics of the patient-practitioner relationship, including ethical and liability issues
- Inner cultivation of the practitioner, the spirit of reflective practice and critical inquiry

The Five Element Graduate Program requires a commitment to attend 3 sessions of 4-days duration & 6 sessions of 3-days duration over two years. Sessions will be arranged so that morning classes explore and discuss theoretical information while afternoon classes consist of practical exercises and skill development, allowing for ease and immediacy of learning.

Classes will run daily from 9.30am to 5.30pm, with class breaks from 11-11.30am and 3.30-4pm, with lunch breaks from 1-2pm.

Participants will be given reading and assignments to guide their studies and clinical practice between sessions. Participants will also be asked to submit questions in advance of specific topics, so that classes can fully address the individual interests and concerns of the participants.
